Leading Motor Group JCT600 Outsources its Email to SMS

Simply Mail Solutions gains another important client for its email hosting services.

Warrington Tuesday August 28th 2007. Simply Mail Solutions have announced that they have received a prestigious email hosting contract from JCT600 - one of the UK's largest privately owned independent Motor Groups today representing 42 franchise outlets operating across the North of England with an annual turnover in excess of £600 million.

Commented Colin Smith SMS Managing Director "We are very pleased to have been chosen by JCT600 to host their email and feel that this is a measure of the progress we have made in the last twelve months in building our credibility through quality of service and reliability"

The initial implementation is for 300 MS Exchange email boxes on a dedicated server located at SMS's high quality installation at Telecity in Manchester. This supports MS Outlook email to desktops and to smartphones used by JCT600. An interesting aspect about this implementation is that JCT600 had a requirement for shared administration. SMS developed a solution allowing JCT secure administration access for the aspects over which they required control, whilst removing the installation, configuration, backup and ongoing system administration burdens. This provided JCT with the best of both worlds.

Commented Nigel Shaw, Finance Director "It was clear that it was much more economic to outsource our Exchange email that to try and run in house with all the hassle that involved. SMS have been very responsive in meeting our needs as the migration and installation has occurred. We have also added the ability to automatically include disclaimers with all our emails which will ensure that we meet all the current legal requirements for information on emails."
